Co-Founder at IPRoyal.com

November 21, 2012, Mindaugas worked with Tomas on the same team

I have a great opportunity to work with Tomas in one team while developing new and existing services and projects for both B2C and B2B markets. Tomas is results oriented and reliable IT professional and manager at the same time. He enjoys waking up at 2 am and going to solve server problems. Tomas always pushes other team members to deliver results, plan and execute.

February 20, 2012, Igor worked with Tomas on the same team

Tomas is a charismatic, clear thinking, straight forward leader with a rich set of IT skills and a deep industry understanding.

Moreover, being a skillful manager, he combines a pragmatic attitude and a good feeling for business opportunities.

Tomas always put people at the top of his priorities. He developed an organizational focus towards selecting, coaching and retaining high performing individuals that delivered quality results as a team.

It was a pleasure working with Tomas and would heartedly recommend...
